HOOD RIVER COUNTY: ERRATA SHEET

UPDATES AND REVISIONS ADOPTED BY HOOD RIVER COUNTY REGARDING ELEMENTS OF THE COMPREHENSIVE LAND USE PLAN

1. Page 3, V. County Comprehensive Plan and Zone Map Index; lands within the three enlarged maps (on left side of page) are planned Primary Forest and Environmental Protection, and are zoned Primary Forest (F-2) and Floodplain (FP).

3. Page 8, delete on the Comprehensive Plan Map the Country Club Designation for golf course property and place the "Farm" symbol on the ownership. On page 9, under the Plan Designation legend, delete the Country Club symbol.

4. Page 12, the Plan designation graphic symbol for "Farm" is incorrect. The correct Plan designation for Farm on page 12 is as follows:

    ______________________

7. Page 20, the zone designation of R1-15,000 (T2N R10E Section 1) is incorrect. The correct designation is R1-7500. The Comprehensive Plan designation of Medium Density Residential remains the same. This area is also designated an Exception Area, Map #2. The correction is noted on Attachment "A".

8. Page 20, delete on the Zoning Map, the designation of Country Club on the golf course ownership and designate the ownership Exclusive Farm Use. On page 21, delete the zoning symbol for Country Club (CC).

9. Page 21, lands zoned RR/CG on insert T3N R10E, R11E, are zoned RR1/CG. (Rural Residential - 1 acre minimums and Columbia Gorge Overlay).

Changes will also be noted in the Zoning Atlas.
10. Page 21, lands zoned Forest (F-1) on Insert T3N R10E, R11E, that are north of the Columbia Gorge Zone Boundary are also Zoned Columbia Gorge Combining Overlay (CG).

11. Pages 8 and 20, the Plan and Zoning Designations along the narrow confines of the Hood River east from Tucker Bridge to the section line (separating Sections 15 and 14, T2N R10E) are Environmental Protection and Floodplain. The Zoning Atlas will be updated to show Floodplain zoning. The Tabloid does not show the area being planned Environmental Protection or zoned Floodplain. Corrections are noted on Attachment "B".

12. Pages 9 and 21, a 7.56 acre piece of Hood River County forest land is designated Primary Forest and zoned F-2 as addressed on page 219 of the Background Report. The designation of Rural Residential and zone RR-1 shown in the Tabloid is incorrect. The Columbia Gorge Combining Zone remains the same. The parcel affected is 3N 11E 31B, #1500. The correction is noted on Attachment "C".

13. Pages 12 and 15, Plan and Zone designations for the ownerships shown on these pages, and on Attachment "D" are Farm and Exclusive Farm Use, not Medium Density Residential/R1-7500.

14. The detailed Plan and Zoning designations for lands around Cascade Locks (UGB) including remainder of lands in R7E are shown on Attachment "E".

15. Page 8, 13 and 20, an amendment to the Urban Growth Boundary line adopted by the City of Hood River and the Board of County Commissioners (Ordinance No. 136) deletes the western portion of Wells Island from the Urban Growth Area. Corrections are noted on Attachment "F".

16. Page 8, 13 and 20, plan and zoning designations of Environmental Protection and Floodplain apply to the portion of Wells Island and the two smaller islands in the vicinity which are in the County. Corrections are noted on Attachment "F".

17. Page 20. On November 13, 1985, the Planning Commission approved a zone change to Rural Residential (RR-1) for areas east of Frankton Road and north of Fairview Drive which were zoned Rural Residential (RR-2 1/2). Airport Height Combining Zone and Light Industrial zoning in the area remain the same. Corrections are noted on Attachment "G".

Changes will also be noted in the Zoning Atlas.
18. Pages 4, 5, 9, 17 and 21; Ordinance # 142 (Geologic Hazards, etc.) changed the Plan and Zoning designations for Geologic Hazards to Geologic Features for Faults along the east side of Hood River County. Updates are noted in Attachment "H", which includes updated Zoning & Plan Maps (1) through (8), including applicable legends.

19. Page 13. On February 3, 1986, the Board of County Commissioners approved the recommendation of the Planning Commission, changing the UGB line of the City of Hood River, moving it east of the City Limits to a point between Wells Island and West Cove. At the south shore of the Columbia River, the Urban Growth Boundary turns due east and extends approximately 10,350' more or less, along the low-water line of the Columbia River to a point easterly of the City Limits line. Thence, north, approximately 3,750' more or less, to the Oregon-Washington state line. Corrections are noted on Attachment "I".

20. Pages 8 and 20. On December 27, 1985, the Hood River County Planning Director, through Article 72 - Planning Directors Review Procedures, adjusted the Plan & Zone boundary of 2N 10E 36 #4000 from Forest/F-1 to Rural Residential/RR-5. Corrections are noted on Attachment "J".
