

Home Occupation – Criteria / Questionnaire

Definition (per Article 5, Section 53.15 of the Hood River County Zoning Ordinance): A home occupation is a business or professional activity operated for income purposes, only by residents in a dwelling or pre-existing building on the same lot or parcel as the resident's dwelling, provided the home occupation is a secondary use and is clearly incidental, accessory or subordinate to the residential use or the pre-existing building.

Home occupations proposed in dwellings or pre-existing buildings in certain specified zones - Residential Zone (R-1); Residential Zone (R-2); Rural Residential Zone (RR); Rural Center Zone (RC); Historic Preservation Zone (HP); and Scenic Protection Zone (SP) - require obtaining a conditional use permit; and home occupations proposed in resource zones must obtain a conditional use permit and comply with applicable requirements in the following zones: Exclusive Farm Use Zone (EFU); Forest Zone (F-1); and Primary Forest Zone (F-2).

Home occupations are permitted outright in the following zones pursuant to compliance with provisions in the zones in which the use is proposed: Commercial Zone (C-1); Industrial Zone (M-1) and Light Industrial Zone (M-2).

A home occupation shall be in conformance with provisions in Article 53 Home Occupations. In the zones noted above, the Planning Director will process the request for a Home Occupation as Conditional Use Permit pursuant to Article 72 and subject to the criteria in Article 60, Section 60.10.
